Code of Ethics

Kern Canine Activities as a club and as members will:

1. Not knowingly misrepresent Kern Canine Activities and will provide honest, Professional services of the highest standards.
2. Develop and apply training programs in line with KCA's mission of advocating Dog-friendly positive training. Require trainers to assess their knowledge, experience and qualifications and work within their professional limits. Treat all dogs and clients with respect, taking into account their physical and psychological well-being and respecting clients wishes regarding the training of their dogs. Refrain from giving guarantees regarding the outcome of training, because there is no sure way to guarantee the cooperation and performance of all parties involved and because the knowledge of animal behavior is incomplete.
3. Incorporate what it means to be a responsible dog owner into training programs. Be respectful of colleagues and other professionals and not falsely condemn the character of their professional acts.
4. Will not be cruel, abusive or neglectful to animals or humans, and will treat all other clients and their dogs and all animals with respect.

Kern Canine Activities members will:

1. Always conduct themselves in a manner which will reflect credit upon themselves and Kern Canine Activities, regardless of the location or circumstances.
2. Maintain the best possible standard of canine health, cleanliness and veterinary care in an atmosphere conducive to the stable development of their dogs.
3. Provide safe housing, food, water and exercise for all dogs under their care and arrange for appropriate veterinary attention if and when required.
4. Abide by all aspects of the Animal Welfare Act.
5. Not allow any of their dogs to roam or to cause a nuisance to neighbors or any official.
6. Keep their dogs leashed or under effective control when away from home.
7. Clean up after their dogs in public places or anywhere their dogs are being exhibited.
8. Not bring aggressive dogs to general classes without permission from the trainer.
